
Lower is more consistent, not necessarily more accurate. Predictions are inverse-reflected before comparison.
Each dot is one seed; error bars are sample SD. Synchronization improves the mean, but only 2 of 3 seeds per reflection.